

Eleventh International Scientific-Professional Symposium

March 21-23, 2012

Bistrica Hotel, Jahorina, RS, BH

Dear colleagues!

It is my pleasure to invite you to the 11th International Scientific-Professional Symposium INFOTEH-JAHORINA 2012 that takes place on the Jahorina mountain, Republic of Srpska, Bosnia and Herzegovina, in the period 21–23 March 2012.

The aim of the Symposium is to gather the experts, scientists, engineers, researchers and students that deal with information technologies and their application in control, communication, production and electronic systems, power engineering and in other areas of interest for a faster and more successful development of the environment we live in.

The work of the Symposium is realised within sessions, round tables, invited lectures and presentations. The Symposium pays special attention to young researchers and students by organising a special students' session.

President of the Program Board
Prof. Slobodan Milojković, PhD
